

New course descriptions

Theoretical Foundations of TEL (EDIT 5154)

In this course you will be introduced to the main theories of learning. The focus is on psychological principles of learning and how these can be applied in technology enhanced learning (TEL) settings. There is not a single theory that can explain all aspects of human learning, so you will be introduced to many different theoretical perspectives on learning