

New course descriptions

Project and Report (EDIT 5904)

This course is offered in lieu of a thesis. The purpose of this component of the ITMA program is to allow you to independently study an area that interests you. As students are expected to spend approximately 150 hours of effort for 3 hours of course credit, this is an excellent chance for you to learn more about a specific IDT-related topic that fascinates you.